PRESENTING . . .

1959 BUCHMANN BEACON

ARCHBISHOP WALSH HIGH SCHOOL

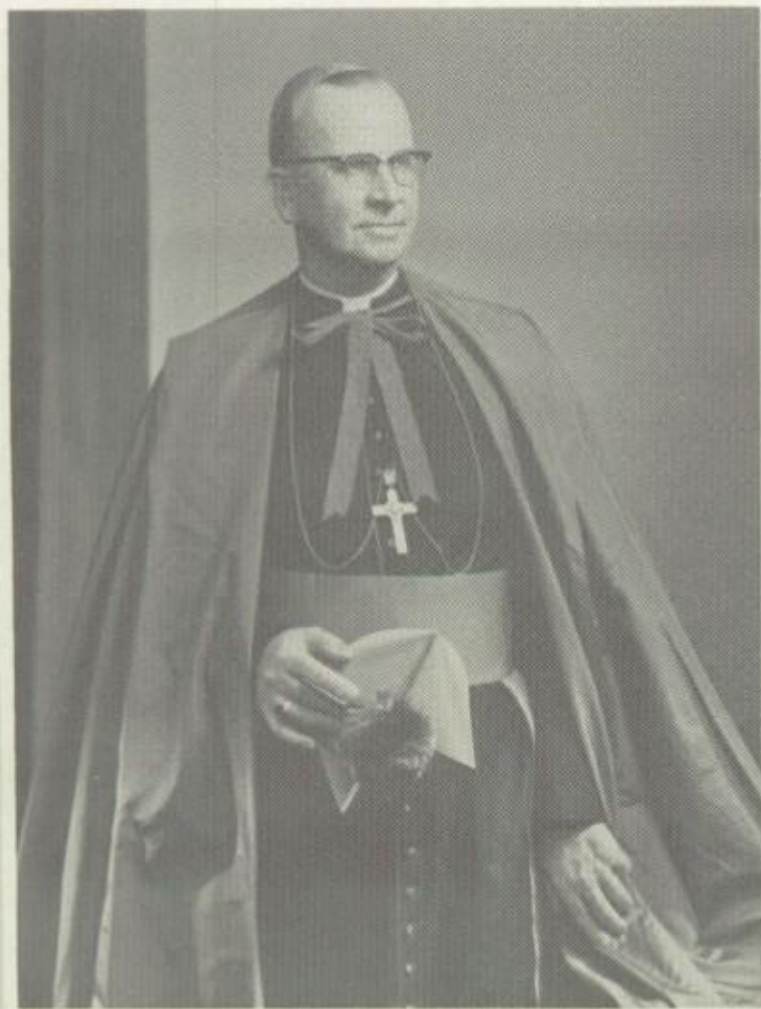

IRVINGTON, NEW JERSEY

Conducted by the School Sisters of Notre Dame

His Excellency, The Most Reverend
THOMAS A. BOLAND, S.T.D., LL.D.
Archbishop of Newark

His Excellency, The Most Reverend
MARTIN W. STANTON, S.T.D., Ph.D.
Titular Bishop of Citium and
Auxiliary to the Archbishop of Newark

DEDICATION

SPACE AND SANCTITY

Because they exemplify our ideal of sanctity, we, the Class of 1959, dedicate the 1959 BUCHMANN BEACON to our beloved Archbishop, The Most Reverend Thomas A. Boland, and to his auxiliaries, Bishop Stanton and Bishop Curtis.

Lofty ambitions and ideals typify this space age. Man seeks to penetrate the mysteries of the universe. He plans space platforms and rockets for travel into the great beyond. Literally he reaches for the moon, and if the moon, why not farther—for a star?

Soon after his consecration, Bishop Curtis, in a sermon to the members of the CYO gathered in Sacred Heart Cathedral stated: "We are reminded (by the Sputniks of the communists) that there is another world—a spiritual world—and that we are children of both worlds."

One can not forget the older and more familiar name for outer space—"the heavens". Following the advice of the adage—"Hitch your wagon to a star"—we seniors choose a star from the spiritual world. Sanctity is our ideal, our goal, our star. To reduce this abstraction to reality we quote again from Bishop Curtis: "God wants you to manifest His love, His glory, in your life, in your home; to do the will of God where you are, as you are, with His help."

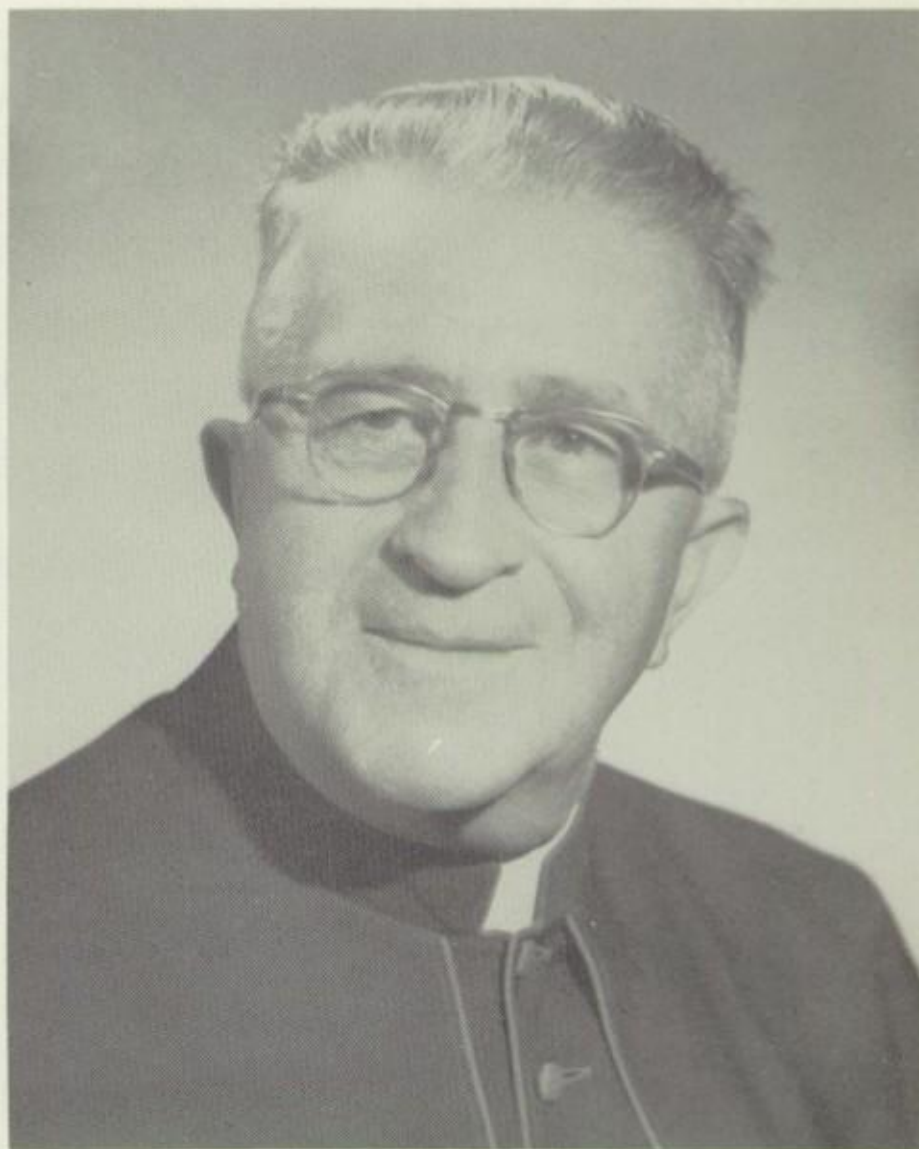

As we step forth on this eighteenth day of June, 1959, we resolve to live this ideal every day.

His Excellency, The Most Reverend
WALTER W. CURTIS, S.T.D.

Titular Bishop of Bisica and
Auxiliary to the Archbishop of Newark

OUR THREE WORLDS

A world, known or unknown, actual or probable, is an important place. In this age of "other worlds" we have chosen OUR WORLD as the theme of this book.

On this planet of about two billion people, we students of Archbishop Walsh High School form our own microcosm with a population of 475. We engage in friendly competition. We have our laws and government. We have our problems. In addition, new horizons of learning loom before us; new worlds of careers invite us; new goals and ambitions beckon us.

The first part of our book shows you the world we know from eight-thirty until two-thirty, Monday through Friday. We present ourselves one by one. Under our pictures is the record of what we have done and of what we are. We show you our senior year in its classes and its activities.

The underclassmen constitute our world of friends. We have watched them enter Archbishop Walsh High School and have seen them advance from year to year. In a few months they will be sitting in our desks, handling this equipment, reading our books. May these good friends love and revere their Alma Mater as we do.

There remains the unknown. This we have explored to some extent in extra-curricular activities—our world after two-thirty. By means of clubs and organizations we have sounded our depths and capacities, our inclinations and endowments. The future seems closer and less strange since we have experimented a little in journalism, science, photography, music, languages, and business life.

May Our Lady guide us through the world lying ahead, and bring us at last to the World Without End.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club numbers forty girls who are trained by Sister Coronata and Mrs. Lucy Carpenito to sing at various functions in Church and to entertain social groups. At Christmastime the members carol for the Rosary Society where they are always warmly received. Annually the club is invited to Irvington High School to participate in the Human Relations program which features folk songs.

SCHOLA CANTORUM

Another opportunity for girls who are interested in music is the Schola, which is limited to members of St. Leo's Parish. This choir sings the High Mass on Sunday, Christmas Midnight Mass preceded by carols, and other liturgical services. Each spring representatives of the Schola take part also in the Demonstration Mass at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

A MERRY TUNE — Glee Club rehearses a favorite number, "A Christmas Card."

CHRISTMAS CHEER — Members of the Glee Club enjoy refreshments at the Christmas Party of the Rosary Society, at which they sang.

CONCERT-GOERS — Juniors and Sophomores board bus to attend the Youth Concert at Carnegie Hall in New York.

HIGH MASS — Nine o'clock High Mass is sung by the Schola every Sunday morning. Sister Coronata directs; Mrs. Carpenito at the organ.

Walsh Weavings

After the lapse of a year, publication of our student newspaper, Walsh Weavings, resumed under new moderators, Sister Jerome and Sister Albert. The call for volunteer journalists was so enthusiastically answered that the staff could be selected only by means of a written test. Now most of the literary work is done by the upperclassmen. Excellent photographs are supplied for each issue by the Camera Club.

WHAT'S UP, DOC? — Co-editors John Nichtern and William Scheick go over an issue of Walsh Weavings.

THE CAMERA CLUB

President Phyllis Orlando
Vice President Charles Weber
Secretary Carol Herbert

One of Walsh's most active organizations is the Camera Club, which aims to make the art of photography fun. Guided by their capable moderator, Sister Walter, the members find that taking as well as developing and printing pictures is fascinating. An annual event anticipated by all the members is the trip to the Coliseum to view the photography exhibit there.

"LOOK AT THIS!" — Members of the Camera Club find some interesting shots submitted by club photographers. Seated: Dolores Scheick, Bohden Czerniach, Phyllis Orlando, Carol Herbert, Madelyn Glasscox, Marie Werner. Standing: Robert Neri, Charles Weber, Stephen Leonardis.

September 1958 brought about the organization of the Latin Club of Archbishop Walsh High School. The club consists of eleven members, who chose as their motto, Latina viam ducit. Under the guidance of Sister Petronilla, this organization will continue to grow and prove that Latin, indeed, leads the way.

HIC, HAEC, HOC — or something that sounds like it ought to be the first words of the constitution of the Latin Club. So think Joyce Hillner, Mary Lynn Heurich, Jane Silbernagel, Claire Biunno, Mary Ann Roselli, Patricia Chmielak, Gail Demko, Kathleen O'Brien, Virginia Burns, and Joan Buddenhagen.

WHO'S WHO? — Literary staff meets to caption pictures. This task is completed only after they have recognized the students in the photo and discovered what they were doing.

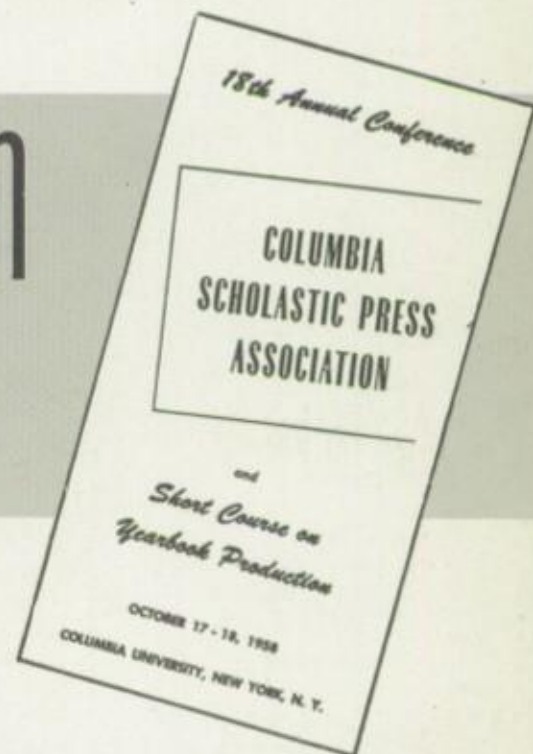

MAKING ENDS MEET — "Will we have enough money to have the kind of book we want?" ask (clockwise) Eileen Young, Cecilia Piotti, Elaine Andres, Rita Carver, Virginia Masucci, Mary Kathryn Scott, and Donna West.

ALL IN A DAY — Racing the deadline are (sitting) Kathleen Jotz, Susan Soelbrandt, Katherine Neri, Carol Golden, Rosemary Rocca-secca, Kathleen O'Donnell, Joyce Wacker, Rose Santoriello. (Stand-ing): Elizabeth Lach, Meredith Byron, Carol Schlegel, Barbara Pehler, Virginia McBain, and Shelia Saccente.

BUCHMANN BEACON

Editor Jean Zrebiec
Business Manager . . . Rita Carver

BUSINESS WOMEN — Rita Carver (standing) explains the financial condition of the year-book to (left) Theresa Petrillo and Patricia Dorsey.

CAPABLE ARTISTS — Louena Guidera (sitting) and Darlene Donohue sketch a few designs for the Buchmann Beacon.

CROWDED SUBWAYS? — Going uptown to the early morning session of the yearbook convention are Jean Zrebiec, Jo Ann Stawski, Julie Hawkins, and Mary Lou DeBenedittis.

"LOOK HOW THEY DO IT!" — Exclaims Jean Zrebiec, editor, to Rita Carver and Sister Carola, moderator. Examining the yearbook display at the Columbia Scholastic Press Convention are also (left), Julie Hawkins, and Jo Ann Stawski.

HOTEL BILTMORE — Played host to the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Clockwise around the table: Rita Carver, Jo Ann Stawski, Jean Zrebiec, Julie Hawkins (standing), Sister Carola, and Mary Lou DeBenedittis.

POSING PRETTY — Friday Night Canteen Committee consists of:
Back Row: Donna West, Gail Demko, Rita Gulbicki, Judith Andes.

THE WEEK OF THE YEAR — Preparing a CYO bulletin board are (left) Elaine Andres, Judy Goodwin, and Joan Mary McConnell.

FOR OVERSEAS — Medical supplies are being sorted and packed for foreign missions by class representatives of the Mission Club.

C.Y.O.

Practically every student of Archbishop Walsh High School belongs to the Catholic Youth Organization. Members attend the monthly Communion on the third Sunday, participate in the First Friday Holy Hour, and enjoy the Friday Night Canteen. Father James Laing is the moderator.

ORCHIDS OR RADISHES? — Cecilia Dolch (left) and Patricia Chmielak pin vegetable corsages on their dates.

SADIE HAWKINS SOCIALIZERS — Around the table clockwise are Joseph Trabold, Carol Lombardi, Raymond Forse, Patricia Brown, Mary Ann Shea, Jan Kruty, (behind) Peggy Ann Ferugia, and Thomas Flanagan.

MISSION CLUB

To ease some of the suffering of the people of foreign missions and to help support our home missions, representatives from each homeroom collect money, stamps and medical supplies. Each student contributes by his generosity to this charitable work. Other responsibilities of the Mission Club are the Advocate Subscription Drive as well as the Watch Dance on New Year's Eve.

A pleasant way to become acquainted with French culture is through Le Cercle Français. To initiate the Junior members, the Seniors had them dramatize La Marseillaise. At Christmastime the club carolled for the Sisters (in French, of course). Class dramatizations of La Belle France prove both enlightening and amusing, as past experiences have shown.

JUNIOR RING CEREMONY

Under the patronage of Our Blessed Mother, members of the Junior classes received, in December, something that was to become a part of them from that day forward — their class ring. To show their gratitude and loyalty each placed a rose at the feet of the statue of Our Lady. The brief ceremony was completed with a congratulatory note from our beloved Monsignor Buchmann.

MARY OUR MOTHER — is a part of every Walsh activity. Here, Vincent Coppola and Edward Kiziukiewicz honor their Heavenly Queen with roses.

PROUD PARENTS — "That's my son receiving his ring!"

SOLEMNITY — That the Ring Ceremony is not to be taken lightly is evident from the serious countenances of Monsignor Buchmann and Mrs. Phillip Dolch.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT — and plenty of it is indicated by the carolers, Joseph DeSantis, Kathleen Herman, Veronica Carello, Anita Humphrey, Charles DeBenedittis, John Tully, and Michael Matthews of Mr. Lagravis' sophomore class.

THE MASCULINE TOUCH — Edward Hopkins (left) and James Boland present their special gift to Sister Petronilla

CHRISTMAS

FOR ME? — Eleanor Crecca, Carla Biskey, Judy Becker, Patricia Brown, Patricia Bradley, and Carol Genabith exchange gifts at their class party.

HOLIDAY HOPPERS — Getting in the Holiday Spirit are Lorraine Muliano, Audrey Goodman, Mary Lou Dugan, Ronald Jacobovitz, and Robert Smith.

THE SENIOR WAY — Regina Schwartz, Katherine Neri, Jo Ann Stawski, Naomi Helmstetter, and Joan Klingel enjoy the informality of the closing day.

SITTING IT OUT — Robert Brady and John Tully prefer the peace and quiet of the side-lines to rockin' an' rollin'.

WALSH CAGERS — Front: James Hoag, Richard Fachet, Edgar Herrmann (captain), Joseph McConnon, William Kratinski, Ralph Kobberger, Vincent Coppola. Back: Father Eugene MacDonald, Patrick Foley (co-captain), Brian Kane, John Nichtern, Frank Heaney, Ronald Wanczyk, Frank Loftus, Edward Kiziukiewicz, Charles Menary, James Hand (manager), Coach Robert Burrows.

JV SKILL—Peter Rinaldi gains possession of the ball for Walsh High.

THE BIG JUMP — Pat Foley starts off the second half of a Varsity game.

IN THE AIR, ROUND THE RIM — As the other team watches, Joe McConnon lays in a shot.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Overcoming a little bad luck at the start, the Walsh Basketball Team brought about an enthusiastic mid-season. The captain, Ed Herrmann, together with Coach Burrows, led the team to its seven victories. They were invited to play in the North Jersey Catholic Conference and lost to St. Michael's of Newark. At the close of the season the record was 7-12.

Walsh Baseball Team had a very successful season with 10 wins and 3 losses. This success can be traced to power at bat and a strong pitching staff. Although Walsh boasted 6 over 300 hitters, at the top of the list stand Kobberger and Lisowski. Herrmann leads the pitching staff with a four and one record.

JUST A NEW YORKER AT HEART — Sister Carola enjoys the subway ride to Columbia University for the year-book convention.

"OH THESE MODERN INVENTIONS!" —cries Daniel Schnieder as he struggles with the coke machine.

KEEP CLAPPING — Jane Silbernagel and Margaret Bogstahl carry out their after-school chores with winning smiles and clouds of chalk dust.

Dear Faculty and Students:

We welcome this opportunity to salute the 1959 graduating class of Archbishop Walsh High School.

To the members of the Faculty and to the parents of these students we say congratulations, and may these students in future years reward your efforts and sacrifices by living the lessons they have learned and ever remaining faithful to God and Country.

Sincerely,

GEORGE W. FROST and SON

Lots of Luck
to a good guy
Chuck

Good Luck and I hope you stay at Walsh.
Robert.

To the Gunner ^{chris}

You are just too powerful for words so I'll just stop right here and say you are a big smacker + ~~also~~ a great guy.

Daniel Schneider
(Salish) you know
that handsome 1-c cat

Dear Raymond
the king of arm wrestling at Norms. Be good in school + don't try to break the Yog's attendance record
George

Dear Jay, (Farfel) arb-arb

To a great member of the B-team.
Always remember the pun we had in Norm's, especially the mango and the soda fights. Don't forget how to say mmmm - Chocolate. Just remember you a great guy and considering, with half a brain you'd be a half-wit.
Score once again for the W's, who will win out in the end. Lots of luck when you graduate in 1971.

Best Wishes

Jo-Jo (Poochie)
